Nominations

The nomination form is an important document.

Once you are over 16 years of age and open a credit union account, you are entitled to nominate a person (or persons) to receive your property in the credit union on your death. Property includes shares, deposits and insurance proceeds.

This is of benefit if you die without leaving a will as the property left in the credit union will not have to pass through the sometimes time consuming probate process.

The nomination can be changed at any time.

- A valid nomination covers all credit union savings which may be assigned to one person or divided between various nominees. Any clearly identified person can be a nominee- it does not have to be next of kin.
- Where only one person is nominated, that person will be the sole beneficiary of your credit union property subject to the maximum permitted by law which is currently €27,000.00.
 - The nomination will supersede your will.
 - Your marriage, after completing a nomination form, automatically revokes that nomination.
 - Death of a nominee revokes that nomination.
- Completion of a new nomination form revokes all previous nominations.

To make a nomination please visit our offices to complete the form.
